Re: Assortment of Key West, Inc.
Document No. 638914
2001 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sir:

The taxpayer referenced above has requested that we contact your office regarding the late fee assessment of $400 for the 2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR). Mr. Joe Carr & Mr. Claude Reams are both very conscientious businessmen. Without fail, they file and pay every tax return they receive. The problem with the 2001 UBR is that they have no record of ever receiving the first report sent out. At the time the reports were mailed by the state, the bookkeeper of 12 years left their employment. Assortment of Key West was in the height of their busy season, and this created a very difficult situation for them. Had they received the form, they would have complied with filing it immediately.

If you would review the file of Assortment of Key West, Inc., you will see that this corporation has a history of timely filing and payment for this and all other filings. We respectfully request your consideration in accepting this 2001 UBR as timely filed.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Thomas E. Sewell, C.P.A.
