Re: Young, Stovall & Co
Re: R. Young Corp.

To whom it may concern,

This letter is in regards to the filing of the Uniform Business Report for the period covering 2003. I realize that this form is not being filed on a timely basis, however I received the forms today May 22, 2003. The forms were mailed to Young, Stovall & Co. at the correct address, however I did not receive the forms until after the due date.

I apologize for not notifying the proper party earlier, I did however speak with a Department of Corporations representative today who brought to my attention that a letter explaining why the form wasn't filed before the due date would be acceptable, and the normal fee enclosed would be sufficient enough for proper filing.

I have filled out the forms completely and accurately and have enclosed the filing fee of $150.00. I appreciate your understanding on this matter, and I would hope that our timely and sufficient compliance with the UBR for the past 20 years is taken into consideration. Young, Stovall & Co. as a business and as a corporation undertakes every filing as a serious process and we certainly believe that this is something that should be done as timely and as sufficient as possible.

Again, I hope that this won't be a problem when filing the UBR, we will be more conscience and will make more of an effort to comply with your policies in the future.

Sincerely,

Dustin Young
