Re: Resignation

Dear Ted,

Please be advised that I am tendering my resignation effective 15 days from date hereon per our agreement of 1/5/94.

This was neither an easy decision nor one that I take lightly. We've enjoyed a mutually successful relationship for 10 years and I hope we can maintain a cordial and professional relationship going forward.

Per the terms of my compensation agreement dated 1/5/94 and modified on 2/7/2000 I've attached a summary of my pipeline which indicates the dollar amount owed to me on each loan, closing dates and pricing including my base and overage due. Almost all of these loans are either closed and I have not been paid or are due to close within 60 days and should require minimal supervision except for the closing department. Please be assured that I will be available to assist the customer until each loan closes.

We personally purchased our cell phones several months ago and recently transferred the phone numbers to our personal account. The American Express Card, Parking Garage Passes and Office Key are enclosed.

Sincerely,

Steve Iltis
