July 15, 1998

Dear Friends,

Please find enclosed with this letter my Annual Report for 1998. Just recently I was surprised to received a notice that I had failed to file by the May deadline. If you will kindly check my corporate history, you will see that I usually file at the same time as I file my Federal tax returns, on April 15th. Last year I filed my Annual Report on April 15th (check #269).

I don't know why I did not received the usual notice for Corporate filing from your office that comes after the first of the year (you guys never miss!), but I hope that you will kindly accept this report filing along with the regular filing fee.

I thank you for your kindness and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Alfred Beck", with a stylized flourish at the end.
