Re: Tech Styles, Inc.

Gentlemen:

During the last week of April I telephoned your offices in Tallahassee to inquire as to whether our corporation had filed the Uniform Business Report for year 2000. I could not find my copy of the report and our bank records were out for reconciliation, so I was unable to check our records for a cancelled check.

The lady who answered the telephone looked up our records and advised me that the report had been filed on time and read back our company name, address and FEI number to me. My assistant in my office heard and can verify this conversation, though, regrettably, I did not get the name of the person to whom I was speaking.

Today, I received a second notice of this report and again telephoned your office in Tallahassee. I spoke with Carol and asked her to check the records again. She advises me that the report was not filed. When I told her of my call in April, she suggested I send the filing fee with this explanatory letter in the hope you will waive the penalty fee in light of the fact that your office clearly misinformed me. We have been incorporated in the state of Florida for many years and always file and pay our fees on time.

I will appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy and assistance.

Sincerely,

Charlene Wells MacDonell
