Annual Reports Filings
Division of Corporations
P.O. Box 6327

Dear Sirs:

I recently got notice that my Annual Report form was not received by your office. I sent it out on March 1, 1998, along with check number 5925 for $150. (On the same day, in separate envelopes, I sent out the Fictitious Name Registration for 'Asset Finders' with check number 5926, and the Corporate Annual Report for '3D COM, Inc.' with check number 1115; both of these other payments have already cleared the banks.) Apparently, you never received it.

I called last month when the notice arrived, and was told to send a check and a cover letter explaining the circumstances, but the check and form were returned. Today, I spoke with Cynthia Blaylock, who again suggested resubmission, only this time I was told to send it to this address. Please understand that my company has been in existence for eighteen years, and I have never been late with a payment, including the current year. It may have been lost in the mail or incorrectly filed.

I am enclosing my check for $150 and the completed form. Please accept this payment in lieu of the missing filing.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Eric Rayboy
