Dear Sir or Madam:

I am enclosing my check for $150.00 and if required to pay $500.00 I will dissolve my corporation. I am a self-published author and market my books myself and this is the only revenue I collect. $500.00 would just about wipe away most of my profit. I kept my corporation after I sold my larger and more prosperous publishing company.

Also, I did not receive a notice to pay the corporate taxes. I moved this spring and much of my mail was not forwarded but left at my old address where the new tenants evidently threw it away.

Thank you for your consideration. Please take note of my new address.

Doris Reynolds
