ARTICLE II

The purpose of this corporation shall be to foster, encourage, provide, and maintain facilities for an organization, or congregation known as above, which said organization shall have and use only and alone, the New Testament as its one and only rule of faith and practice, adhering to the purpose of carrying out the commands of Christ as suggested in the great commission, to preach the simple and entire gospel of pardon, Christian life and duty, at home and abroad, to encourage and admonish each other to mutual edification and Christ-likeness and to lend our individual and organized aid to moral and civil betterment. Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by the Directors. The minimum number shall be three. The maximum number shall be determined by the needs of the corporation. The Directors shall be elected by and from the membership. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the organization shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE XII

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
