OLD BUSINESS:

We received a letter from Elizabeth Denski requesting a review of the situation leading to her revocation of membership. Both our letter and her response letter were read. (see attached). Discussion followed. Basically, Article 7, of our Bi-Laws was quoted, with regard to acceptable conduct of a member. Motion by Robert Craig to "let dead dogs lie" or in laymans terms, to uphold the original decision of the Board. A vote was called for: 12 to leave decision same/ 2 opposed. Jack Davis to compose a letter advising review completed and results.

Walkie-Talkies: Doug Vidrine did not purchase yet. He found a pair of W/Talkies, lithium batteries(rechargeable), and a charger for $69.00 per pair. He advises with our twice yearly use if we remove the batteries from each unit at the end of the weekend and recharge them just before each ride these sets should last us a lifetime. Motion by Allen Applebee to increase allowance to $70.00 per pair (from $60.00). Second by Robert Craig. Voted and passed. (Made by Cobra)

RIDE DATES: November 1,2,3, 2002 Fall Family ride

Discussion for Fall/2003--immediately before Hunting Season opens, but not the last weekend of the month unless as a very last resort. (Hunting season dates not available yet.)

NEW BUSINESS:

Jim Wright suggested we pick a charity to make a yearly donation to--charities mentioned; Camp Adventure (for familys post Hospice), Hospice itself, specific counties, and others. Discussion followed. Most recent donations were to Handicapped Children thru Florida Fish and Game Commision and Marion County Sheriffs Office, ($200.00 April 2000). Food and use of Chuck Wagon for Randy Williams daughter's benefit raised $5000.00 and Chuck Wagon use for Tami/Jim Jicha's sons Cancer Benefit raised $9600.00. Robert Craig reminded us we have to be careful how we present the use of the Chuck Wagon as it would not pass health/food inspection. Private party use only.

An announcement will be made of benefits done and funds raised to the general membership at the next ride.

Motion by Sue Foust to purchase a banner with Big Scrub Trail Riders on it to display at benefits and on our rides. It should have grommets so it can be displayed as free-standing or on the side of the Chuck Wagon. It Should be green on white, and minimum of 3'x10', in a heavy plastic. Voted and passed.

Jim Wright opened a discussion on changing our Bi-Laws in regard to the Fall Ride Attendance. He suggests we allow each member to invite immediate family or a significant other. Discussion followed. We won't change Bi-Laws right now but will allow for the Fall Ride 2002 and see how it works out. Motion to allow each member to invite his immediate family or one other person to camp or ride for Fall/2002, (by Jim Wright) Second by Sue Foust. Voted and passed.

Joan Baur suggested we start having Church Services again on Sunday mornings, apprx. 15 min service. Voted and passed if a chaplin can be located. Howard King, Tami Jicha and Jim Wright will locate speaker. Jim W. will contact Hospice Chaplin.
