22 ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
23 COMMUNITY COMMUNICATIONS, INC.
24 A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION
25

26 ARTICLE I
27 NAME
28

29 The name of the corporation is COMMUNITY COMMUNICATIONS, INC., and its principal office
30 and place of business shall be in Orange County, Florida, or at such place as the Board of 31 Trustees may from time to time determine.

32
33 ARTICLE II
34 STATEMENT OF CORPORATE NATURE
35

36 This is a non-profit corporation organized solely for general charitable purposes pursuant to the 37 Florida Corporation's Not for Profit law set forth in Part I of Chapter 617 of the Florida statutes. No
38 part of the income is distributable to its members, trustees, or officers, provided this shall not 39 prevent payment of reasonable compensation for service actually rendered to or for the 40 Corporation in effecting its purpose.

41
42 ARTICLE III
43 GENERAL AND SPECIFIC NON-PROFIT PURPOSES
44

45 The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are to operate exclusively for such
46 educational and charitable purposes as will qualify it as an exempt organization under Section
47 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or corresponding provision of any subsequent 48 federal tax laws, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations which 49 qualify as tax-exempt organizations under the code.

50
51 The Corporation may engage in attempting to influence legislation, but only to the extent permitted
52 to public charities under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended from time to time. It shall 53 not participate in or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
54

55 The specific and primary purposes for which this Corporation is formed are to set up, establish,
56 furnish and operate a non-profit, non-commercial telecommunications service for East Central

Florida, including but not limited to a television broadcast service, radio broadcast service, non-broadcast program distribution, and literary publications for the advancement of education, culture, and information and for other charitable purposes by the distribution of its funds for such purposes; and to provide the necessary studios, facilities, and staff for that purpose.

For the accomplishment of its foregoing purposes, the Corporation shall have the following enumerated powers together with such powers and authority as are provided under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, provided, however, that the exercise of any one or more of such powers shall be only in furtherance of the corporate purpose for which it has been organized and described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code:

1. To obtain and hold appropriate authorizations from the Federal Communications Commission to operate such station(s);
2. To obtain and hold contributions, deed, or lease real estate or personal property and funds and sell, mortgage, or otherwise encumber such property for corporate purposes;
3. To hold such funds as may be contributed or authorized by legislative act, or by grant, and to expend same as determined by the Board of Trustees;
4. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;
5. To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated;
6. To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the Corporation may determine, issue its notes, bond and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property and income;
7. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested;
8. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the Corporation and define their duties and fix their compensation;
9. To make donations for charitable, scientific, literary, civic, or educational purposes;
10. To indemnify any Trustee or officer or former Trustee or officer of the Corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a Trustee or officer of another corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such Trustee or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Trustee or officer may be entitled, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Board of Trustees or members, or otherwise;

11. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which this Corporation is organized.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERSHIP

The Board of Trustees shall provide non-voting membership to any individual, family, organization, corporation, or foundation making to the Corporation an unrestricted monetary contribution on an annual basis. The contribution shall be potentially renewable. The President shall classify the non-voting membership in this Corporation and shall prescribe the amount of dues, if any, for each class of non-voting membership. Members of the Corporation shall have no voting rights.

ARTICLE V TERM OF EXISTENCE

This Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The business affairs of this Corporation are to be managed by a Board of Trustees which shall consist of no less than fourteen (14) members as fixed from time to time by the By-Laws of the Corporation. The Board of Trustees shall consist of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, and such other members as are elected or re-elected in the manner provided in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VII OFFICERS

The officers of the Corporation shall be a President, who shall be elected chief executive officer, an elected Secretary and a Treasurer, which in the discretion of the Board of Trustees, the offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined, such staff Vice Presidents as may from time to time be appointed by the President with advice and consent of the Board of Trustees, and such other officers as shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. The term of office of each officer shall be as provided in the By-Laws.

128
129 ARTICLE VIII

130 BY-LAWS
131

132 The By-Laws shall be created, rescinded, or amended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of 133 the members of the Board of Trustees present at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting
134 called for that purpose, provided a quorum as fixed in the By-Laws is present at either such 135 meeting.
136

137 ARTICLE IX

138 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
139

140 These Articles of Incorporation may at any time be amended by resolution proposed and adopted
141 by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board of Trustees present,
142 provided a quorum as fixed in the By-Laws is present at the meeting. When so proposed and 143 adopted, any such amendment or amendments shall become effective upon being filed in the 144 office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida and approved by him.
145

146 ARTICLE X

147 DISSOLUTION
148

149 In the event of the dissolution of the Corporation, the assets, to the extent allowable under law,
150 shall be distributed by the Board of Trustees to an organization or organizations devoted to the
151 promotion, development, or presentation of non-commercial telecommunications and exempt
152 under the provision of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).
