RE: Sales & Marketing Executives of Tampa Bay, Inc. FEI #59-6153325 DOC# 703662 Annual Report Reinstatement

Dear Sirs,

As current Treasurer of Sales & Marketing Executives of Tampa Bay, Inc. I am enclosing the corporate reinstatement form and a check for $61.25 to obtain reinstatement of our status as a non-profit corporation.

I regret and apologize for our not filing our annual report on a timely basis. This happened for the following reason:

We are a non-profit organization whose membership had dwindled to the point the organization almost ceased operations. A new slate of officers and directors was formed in September 1999. Your original annual report was undoubtedly mailed to one of the former officers and was never forwarded to one of our current officers or directors.

As a result, the original annual report notice was never acted upon.

We note that your recent notice was addressed to Mr. Russell Geuther who is no longer an officer, director or member of our organization. Fortunately however, this notice was forwarded to us for action.

Last week I spoke to one of your representatives who told me to submit_the enclosed form listing the new officers, a check for $61.25 and a letter such as this explaining the reason for not filing on a timely basis for your review.

Thank you for you consideration.

20 5

Sincerely yours

Robert H. Frey
