Article III

Paragraph 2: Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) Of The Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article V

Paragraph 9: No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI

Paragraph 2: Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal officer of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Attachment 2

Amended
Articles of Incorporation of Paxon Revival Center Church, Inc.

Article I: THE NAME OF THE CORPORATION.

Paragraph 1: the name of this corporation shall be Paxon Revival Center Church, Inc.

Article II: THE PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS AND THE MAILING ADDRESS.

The principal place of business and the mailing address of this corporation shall be 5461 Commonwealth Ave, Jacksonville, Florida 32254

Article III: PURPOSE.

Paragraph 1: The purpose for which this corporation is organized is to establish a place of worship for religious services, meetings, revivals, camps, and any other activity related thereto, and to further organize other such churches, and to promote and encourage, through ministries of the organization, cooperation with other organizations ministering within the community, and to license and ordain ministers of the gospel, and to conduct a Christian school, and to promulgate the gospel through any and all available means at our disposal. Further, this corporation is organized for the purpose of transacting any and all lawful business necessary to fulfill the purpose of the corporation as set out above.

Paragraph 2: Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) Of The Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IV: GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

Paragraph I:

A person shall be granted a general membership in this corporation if they meet all the following requirements:

Paragraph 2:

They must believe in and agree to abide by the Articles of Faith and the Church covenant;

Paragraph 3:

They must support the church in their attendance and finances.

Paragraph 4:

They must submit a request (written or verbal) to become a member and, upon approval of the official board, shall be deemed a member in good standing.

Articles V: CORPORATE MANAGEMENT AND GOVERNMENT.

Paragraph 1:

The corporation shall be governed and managed by the Board of Directors;

Paragraph 2:

The Board of Directors shall consist of at least three and not more than five persons;

Paragraph 3:

The members of the Board shall serve for a one year term and may be re-elected for successive terms;

Paragraph 4:

Vacancies in the offices shall be filled by appointment of the remaining Board members and shall serve until the next scheduled Board meeting;

Paragraph 5:

The Directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors;

Paragraph 6:

The Board shall have the power to disassociate any general member should it be felt that their actions and conduct are in contrast with the teachings and purpose of the corporation;

Paragraph 7:

Any action by the Board shall be by a majority vote.

Paragraph 8:

The officers of the corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and the officers shall consist of a President, Secretary and Treasurer and any others that may be appointed as set out in the bylaws. The duties and responsibilities of the officers shall be set out and enumerated in the Bylaws.

Paragraph 9: No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI: LICENSING AND ORDINATION OF MINISTERS.

Paragraph 1:

This Article is added as Article VI: Individuals desiring licensing and ordination as a minister must make a written application to the Board of Directors. The application shall be subject to approval by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to withdraw any license and ordination of a minister which it has granted to such minister if it is determined by the Board of Directors that the minister is not serving the best interest of the corporation.

Paragraph 2: Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal officer of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article VII: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Paragraph 1:

This corporation shall exist perpetually or until dissolved by due process of law. Upon being dissolved, the leadership in charge of the corporation at the time of dissolution shall distribute the proceeds resulting to such qualified 501(c) IRS charitable organizations as they deem consistent with their Articles of Faith.
