Respond Immediately

Your account will be referred to a private debt collection agency unless you contact the Florida Department of Revenue immediately.

Since you have not responded to previous notices regarding the unpaid amount(s) referenced on the attached list, your account will be referred to a private debt collection agency.

To prevent us from taking this step, you must, within seven (7) days of the date of this letter, either pay the full amount due or contact the service center indicated below to work out arrangements for payment.

This is our final notice before initiating this debt collection action. Failure to resolve this immediately will result in one or more additional enforcement actions, such as:

- Revoking your sales and use tax certificates and eliminating your ability to continue to do business.
- Filing a Judgment Lien against you with the Florida Department of State – Division of Corporations.
- Referring your account to the State Attorney's office for possible criminal prosecution.

In addition, you are incurring additional interest and fees until the balance is paid in full. If you have questions, please contact the office listed below.

Payment options (U.S. Funds Only):

- Initiate payment online at floridarevenue.com/taxes/filepay.
- Make check, money order or cashier's check payable to Florida Department of Revenue.
