ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
to
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION of
PRIMROSE CENTER, INC.

704372
Document Number of Corporation

FILED
04 JUL 13 PM 1:02
SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 617.1006, Florida Statutes, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following articles of amendment to its articles of incorporation.

FIRST: Amendments adopted:

Article Two of the Articles of Incorporation of Primrose Center, Inc. is hereby amended to read:

ARTICLE TWO: PURPOSE

The Corporation is organized for such charitable, educational, literary, or scientific purposes, as will qualify it for exemption from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. Within the scope of the forgoing, the Corporation is specifically organized and empowered to transform the lives of people with developmental disabilities by providing opportunities to achieve their fullest potential.

This Corporation is organized for the purpose of providing supports, services, opportunities, that include but are not limited to educational, vocational, training, living arrangements, and transportation for persons with disabilities, who can benefit from the service offered, including without limitation, services, projects, programs, opportunities, and activities to develop, enhance, and/or maintain skills that contribute to assisting people in the achievement of personal outcomes, and to acquire, real and personal properties to provide for such services.

The Corporation shall be authorized to in addition borrow, leverage, lien, and or mortgage money to do these services as well as rent, lease, trade and or sell such real and personal properties as deemed necessary by the Board.

To accept, hold, administer, invest and disburse for such purposes or for other scientific, educational, literary, or charitable purposes, such funds as may from time to time be given to it by any person, persons or corporations, and receive gifts and make financial and other types of contributions and assistance to scientific, educational, literary, and charitable organizations; and:

To engage in such other activities as are necessary, appropriate, or convenient to the furtherance of the forgoing stated purpose and permitted under the laws of Florida and the United States.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, unless such member, director, officer or other private person is itself an organization qualifying for exemption from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501 ( c ) ( 3 ) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law and except as reasonable compensation for services rendered or to make payments and distributions in the furtherance of Article Two. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be for the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except to the extent permitted pursuant to an election made under Section 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986), and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any United States Internal Revenue Law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding section of any future United States Revenue Law.
