the corporation shall consist of the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

D. DISSOLUTION: Upon winding up and dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation remaining after payment of all debts and liabilities shall be distributed to organization(s) recognized as exempt under section 501(a) of Internal Revenue Code of 1986 because it is an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of that Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law to be used exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. If the Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such a manner as may be directed by decree of the Circuit Court of the district in which the Corporation's principal office is located, upon petition thereof by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation.

E. If amending or adding additional Articles, enter change(s) here:

1. Article II of the Articles of Incorporation is hereby replaced. The new Article III reads in its entirety as follows:

Article II
Corporate Purposes

A. The exclusive purpose of this Corporation is to engage in charitable, educational, religious, or scientific activities, including, for such purpose, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt under section 501(a) of Internal Revenue Code of 1986 because they are organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of that Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

B. To do any and all lawful activities which may be necessary, useful, or desirable for the furtherance, accomplishment, fostering, or attaining of the foregoing purpose, either directly or indirectly, and either alone or in conjunction or cooperation with others, whether such others be persons or organizations of any kind or nature, such as corporations, firms, association, trusts, institution, foundations, or governmental bureaus, departments or agencies.

2. The following additional Article is hereby added to the Articles of Incorporation which reads in its entirety as follows:

Article VI
501(c)(3) Limitations

A. CORPORATE PURPOSES: Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this organization shall not carry on activities that are not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt under section 501(a) of Internal Revenue Code of 1986 because it is an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of that Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

B. NO PRIVATE INUREMENT: The Corporation is not organized nor shall it be operated for the primary purpose of generating pecuniary gain or profit. The Corporation shall not distribute any gains, profits or dividends to the Directors, Officers, or Members thereof, or to any individual, except as reasonable compensation for services actually performed in carrying out the Corporation's charitable and educational purposes. The property, assets, profits and net income of the Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes no part of which shall inure to the benefit of any individual.

C. LOBBYING AND POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS: No substantial part of the activities of
