8. The number of directors shall not be less than three (3).

9. The principal office and place of business of the corporation shall be 2701 North Palafox Street, Escambia County, Pensacola, Florida, but the corporation shall have the right to establish other places of business as shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

10. Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed in writing by any member at any meeting of the Board of Directors; if the proposed amendment shall be such as is lawful for a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida and for the purposes for which this corporation is organized, the Board of Directors shall call a meeting of the members of the corporation in the manner provided in the By-Laws, to consider the adoption of such proposed amendments; if at such meeting a majority of the members vote to adopt such amendments, the same shall then be considered adopted; copy of the amendments so adopted, with thereon a certificate of its approval by a majority of the members, sealed with the corporate seal, signed by the Secretary, and executed and acknowledged by the President or Vice-President, shall then be prepared and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida for his approval, and when so approved, these Articles of Incorporation shall be considered as having been amended to include the amendments so proposed and adopted.

11. The By-Laws of the corporation shall be made, altered or rescinded by the directors.

12. In order to accomplish its objective, the corporation shall have the following powers, which shall be deemed to be in furtherance of and not in limitation of the general powers conferred upon educational and charitable corporations under the laws of the State of Florida:

(a) To receive, acquire, hold, own, manage, administer, invest and reinvest any and all moneys, securities, evidences of indebtedness or other property, real or personal, as may from time to time be given, sold, transferred, rented, conveyed or assigned to it by any person, firm, committee, association or corporation; to take by devise or bequest or otherwise, within the limitations provided by law, any and all property heretofore or hereafter devised or bequeathed by Will, or otherwise, or in any manner granted or conveyed to it; to exercise, in respect to any and all such property, any and all rights, powers and privileges or individual ownership; from time to time to pay, apply or otherwise utilize the principal and income thereof but only for the purposes for which the corporation is formed.

(b) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, lease, convey, mortgage or otherwise dispose of real and personal property or any interest therein.

(c) To cooperate with or engage the services of any person, firm, association, corporation, government, or public agency which may assist in carrying out the corporate purposes, and in furtherance of such purposes to grant financial or other voluntary assistance thereto.

(d) To enter into affiliations, contracts, agreements, undertakings or otherwise within the limitations provided by law.

(e) To do any and all things which may be necessary or proper in connection with its purposes.

13. The corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit; it shall not have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends; no part of its net earning shall inure to the benefit of any private member or individual; and no officer, member or employee shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation of the corporation, except a reasonable compensation for the services in effecting one or more of its purposes.

In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of the corporation, the property and assets of the corporation shall be distributed to or among one or more similar corporations or foundations within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as the same is now in effect or as it may be hereafter amended, or such property and assets shall be given to the municipal government of cities in foreign nations with which this corporation has been concerned to be used for the purposes of this corporation set forth herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have made, subscribed and acknowledge this certificate as of this 16th day of September, 1964.

Dear Sirs:

I feel that we have unfortunately "dropped the ball" in the poor handling of our annual report for our council. With all due respect for the wonderful help that our organization receives from volunteer officers and members, we are not efficient in some matters such as legal reporting requirements.

A large turnover in officers led to the loss of experience and understanding in the area of required documentation and reporting. This affair of dissolution, no matter how temporary, is not a pleasant one for our council.

We are dedicated and effective in achieving better understanding between the Peruvian people and our United States citizens, particularly Pensacolians. Our work is internationally renown. It sets an example for over 1700 other similar councils. It is our sincere and fervent desire to have our charter reinstated.

Enclosed are the forms required and, hopefully, properly completed along with our remittance of $30 for reinstatement for 1975 and 1976. Your favorable action on this pressing problem is sincerely requested.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas G. Fitzpatrick
