Dear Ms. Sheppard:

Enclosed are the necessary documents regarding our organization's recent name change. This action occurred at our Annual Meeting in June of this year. In addition to the completed "Articles of Amendment" form which we received from your office, included for your files is; a copy of the minutes to the 1997 Annual Meeting, the invitation to the Annual Meeting which we sent out to our membership, attachments to the invitation which were also sent out describing the amendments proposed and the other events of that evening, a copy of the old constitution, and a copy of our new signed constitution. Any of these documents which you may not need may be discarded at your discretion.

Returned

A check for $87.50 (copy enclosed) was inadvertantly sent to you under separate cover to pay for the amendment processing fee and the certified copy of the amendment. Please accept my apologies for any inconvenience which these two separate mailings may have caused your office.

If there are any questions which you may have about this mailing, please feel free to give me a call. Thank you for your assistance with our amendment process.

Sincerely,

John Becker
