AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Boca Ciega Yacht Club, Inc.

In compliance with Chapter 617, Florida Statutes (Not for Profit)

Overview

This entity was chartered as the Sunshine City Boat Club, Inc., located in St. Petersburg, Florida, by order of the Pinellas County Circuit Court, Clearwater, Florida, on May 28, 1940, as a "corporation not for profit" authorized by Sections 6495 and 6503, Compiled General Laws of Florida, 1927. The original "Articles of Incorporation and Charter" provide a "perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved according to law."

The Club moved to its present location in Gulfport, Florida in 1965, adopted amendments to the Charter on December 20, 1965, and filed a Certificate for Reincorporation with the Florida Secretary of State on February 10, 1966, under the provisions of Chapter 617, Florida Statutes to be called Boca Ciega Yacht Club, Inc.

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation shall amend, restate, and supersede in their entirety any and all prior Articles of Incorporation filed with the State of Florida from the date of the Corporation's original incorporation through the date hereof.

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation have been approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the required vote of the Corporation's membership.

Article I Name

The name of the Corporation is Boca Ciega Yacht Club, Inc.

Article II Principal Office

The principal street address is 4600 Tifton Drive S., Gulfport, FL 33711. The principal mailing address is P.O. Box 530848, St. Petersburg, FL 33747.

Article III Purposes

Boca Ciega Yacht Club, Inc. is organized exclusively as a private social club to promote safe boating activities; to promote instruction and education in safe boating and all nautical activities; to foster fellowship and camaraderie among the members, and other nonprofit purposes within the meaning of § 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The social or recreational facilities of the Corporation shall not be made available to the general public.

Article V Initial Directors and/or Officers

The incumbent members of the Board of Directors shall continue to serve out their terms without interruption.

Article VI Members

The classes, qualifications, rights, privileges, and obligations of members of the Boca Ciega Yacht Club are determined by its Bylaws. Membership is open to individuals of good character who meet the eligibility requirements for membership set forth in the Bylaws. Application, vetting and acceptance procedures for new members shall be selective and consistent with the Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(7) social club status of Boca Ciega Yacht Club, Inc.

All members are required to comply with Boca Ciega Yacht Club's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, and § IRC 501(c)(7) requirements, which will all be available to the membership. Members who do not comply or who no longer meet the established requirements for membership will have their memberships in the Boca Ciega Yacht Club terminated in accordance with the fair and reasonable procedures set forth in the Club's Bylaws, which will be carried out in good faith. These procedures, as well as the full text of the Club's Bylaws, will be posted on the Club's website and made available to all members as a matter of course. Any member facing suspension and/or expulsion from the Club, and termination of Club membership as a result, will receive written notice of such pending action via certified mail or first-class mail to the last address of the member shown on the Club's records.

Memberships in the Boca Ciega Yacht Club are not transferrable.

Article VII Bylaws

The Bylaws may contain any provision for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the Articles of Incorporation. The power to amend the Bylaws is provided in the Bylaws.
