To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter as requested in my conversation with a member of your staff on the morning of November 12th.

As I explained to this individual, the Pensacola Junior Woman's Club changed its officers and I became the treasurer-elect. I was not informed of the bill for incorporation that is now overdue. Our mail was sent to a P.O. box number and I never received the prior statement.

I was told that if I write this letter of explanation and send the payment of $61.25, we would be in good standing again.

Thank you for being so understanding in this oversight.

Sincerely,

Linda Telatovich
