AMENDED AND RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
MENTAL HEALTH CENTER OF JACKSONVILLE, INC.
(Effective March 1, 1997)

These Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of MENTAL HEALTH CENTER OF JACKSONVILLE, INC., a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, are adopted and filed pursuant to the provisions of Section 617.1001, Florida Statutes, as amended, the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, as amended and have been duly authorized, approved and adopted by the Board of Directors meeting thereof specifically noticed and held on February 10, 1997, and shall be effective upon March 1, 1997.

All amendments included in these amended and restated Articles of Incorporation have been adopted pursuant to Sections 617.1002 and 617.1007, Florida Statutes, and there is no discrepancy between the Articles of Incorporation of MENTAL HEALTH CENTER OF JACKSONVILLE, INC., as heretofore amended and the provisions of these amended and restated Articles of Incorporation other than the inclusion of amendments adopted pursuant to Sections 617.1002 and 617.1007, Florida Statutes, as amended.

ARTICLE 1

NAME

The name of the corporation is MENTAL HEALTH CENTER OF JACKSONVILLE, INC.

ARTICLE 2

DURATION

The term of duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE 3

PURPOSES, LIMITATIONS AND DISSOLUTION

Section 3.1 Purposes. The corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, and not for pecuniary profit, and to the extent consistent with such purposes, to provide comprehensive mental health, alcohol and substance abuse services, including but not limited to emergency services, crisis stabilization services, medical detoxification services, short and long term residential services, medication management services, case management services, counseling services, day treatment services, and forensic services; to conduct educational and training programs for physicians, nurses, other mental health care professionals and the general public; and to make contributions and confer benefits in furtherance of its purposes to Renaissance Behavioral Health Systems, Inc., Mental Health Resource Center, Inc., Renaissance Center, Inc., Center for Corporate and Family Health, Inc., or to such other organization or organizations that qualify as organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law (the "Code").

Section 3.2 Limitations. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 3.1. of this Article. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by any organization exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (b) by an organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 3.3 Dissolution. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall distribute the assets of the corporation in accordance with applicable law, and to the extent not inconsistent therewith shall, after paying or making adequate provision for the payment of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation, and after the return, transfer, or conveyance of assets which are held by the corporation under a condition requiring their return, transfer or conveyance by reason of dissolution, shall distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, to Renaissance Behavioral Health Systems, Inc., Mental Health Resource Center, Inc., Renaissance Center, Inc., Center for Corporate and Family Health, Inc., or to such other organization or organizations organized for charitable, educational or scientific purposes and having its or their principal place of business in Duval County, Florida, as the Board of Directors shall determine; provided, however, that any organizations to which assets are distributed pursuant to this paragraph shall, at the time, qualify as organizations exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

POWERS

Subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in Article 3 and the bylaws, the corporation shall have and may exercise all powers, rights and authorities as are now or may hereafter be granted to corporations not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, including but not limited to the power, right and authority to elect or appoint such officers and agents as its affairs shall require and allow them reasonable compensation; to make contracts and incur liabilities; to borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage and pledge of all or any of its property, franchises or income; to conduct its affairs, carry on its operations and have offices and exercise its powers in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States or any foreign country; to purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise, or bequest or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use or otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated; to acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks and any licenses and other rights or interests thereunder or therein; to sell, convey, mortgage, grant security interests in, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets; to purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares and other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof; to lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested; to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, educational or other similar purposes; and to exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized, including the power to make guaranties when deemed by the Board of Directors to be in furtherance of such purpose or purposes.

ARTICLE 5
