RE: Bay Island Villas, Inc.

To the Division of Corporations:

I, Walter Suberg, am the President of Bay Island Villas, Inc., a not-for-profit entity and Condominium Association. The Accountant typically prepares the forms for the Association for filing with the State each year, and he failed to do so in 2003. Further, the address listed for the principal office and mailing address for the corporation is my unit, unit# 205 at 3101 NE 27 Street, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33308. I did not receive any forms from the State for filing the corporation's annual Uniform Business Report for 2003. The corporation was administratively dissolved for failure to file the annual report as of September 19, 2003, but we have just learned of this as of the date of this letter. As such, it is hereby requested that the reinstatement fee be waived for reinstatement of this not-for-profit corporation and condominium association. We are enclosing a completed Corporate Reinstatement form and a check in the amount of $122.50, as per a discussion with a representative of the Corporate Reinstatement department, for the years 2003 and 2004.

Sincerely,

Walter Suberg, President

RE: Bay Island Villas, Inc.

To the Division of Corporations:

Enclosed please find a fully executed form for Corporate Reinstatement of Bay Island Villas, Inc., and correspondence from the President of the corporation, a not-for-profit entity and Condominium association, indicating the address for the corporation is his address and he did not receive the annual report form for 2003. Per my discussion with Katrina of the Corporation Reinstatement Department of the Division of Corporations, enclosed please find $122.50 for the fees for 2003 and 2004 and please accept this letter and the letter attached hereto as a request for a waiver of the reinstatement fee for the reasons set forth herein.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

BETH G. LINDIE
