Dear Mr. Allen:

Reference is made to your letter to me of August 20, 1970, which I am returning along with the original and one copy of the articles of Incorporation I previously forwarded to your office.

I am enclosing herein a photostatic copy of a cashier's check #27770 drawn on the Central Bank of Port Lauderdale and made payable to the Secretary of State. This was the check enclosed in my previous correspondence with your office.

Since I am unable to stop payment on this instrument, I trust that the enclosed copy thereof will suffice to establish payment of the required fees.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter, I remain,

Very truly yours,
