ARTICLE I – Name

The name of this corporation shall be VERO CHRISTIAN CHURCH, INC.

ARTICLE II – Purpose

The purpose of this corporation shall be to establish and maintain a Christian Church, patterned after the plan set forth in the New Testament; to promote Christian worship and religious instruction and to provide facilities therefore, and for other Christian activities which may be desired, such as a Kindergarten and Day School. The organization may adopt and establish By-Laws, and make all rules and regulations necessary and expedient for the management of its affairs, in accordance with the law and not inconsistent with these Articles of Incorporation.

In accordance with the desire to be patterned after the Church set forth in the New Testament, the general program of the Church shall be evangelistic and shall provide opportunity in the Sunday worship services for the observance of the Lord's Supper, for prayer, for preaching and teaching of the Bible, for instrumental music, for singing of hymns and Christian songs and for the giving of offerings."

ARTICLE III – Membership

Membership shall consist of those people desiring membership who have complied with the following terms as revealed in the New Testament:

- (C) Baptism by immersion in obedience to Jesus Christ, and in keeping with the example and teaching found in the New Testament.

Any person may become a member of this church upon his statement that he has complied with all of the terms of this Article III.

ARTICLE IV – Term of Existence

This corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE V – Authority and Autonomy

This corporation recognizes the Bible as the Word of God and the New Testament as its authority in matters pertaining to the church. It declares itself to be a free and autonomous body, claiming the right of free government and recognizing no outside religious authority or control.

ARTICLE VI – Government

When the church membership deems it advisable, it shall elect two (2) or more Elders and two (2) or more Deacons. The Elders are the permanent governing body known as the "Elders." The minister or ministers shall function in an ex-officio status acting in the advisory capacity to the Elders.

- (A) The Elders shall bear the responsibility for the oversight of the church. The Deacons shall serve as assistants to the Elders, and shall meet with the Elders at meetings so designated but without voting privileges.
- (B) The qualifications and the duties of the Elders and Deacons shall be patterned after those found in the New Testament.
- (C) Elders and Deacons shall be elected for a three-year term terminating at the time of the annual meeting. An elder may serve two sequential terms followed by at least one (1) year sabbatical from office.
- (D) The Elders shall meet regularly to conduct the business of the Church. They may have the privilege of seeking congregational action on any matter, and they shall be required to seek congregational action on the calling of a minister, the acquiring or disposal of real estate, mortgaging, and arranging of loans.
