RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF WAKULLA SENIOR CITIZENS COUNCIL, INC.

Wakulla Senior Citizens Council, Inc., was originally incorporated on June 9, 1971, and Amended Articles of Incorporation were filed on March 12, 2019, both pursuant to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act. In accordance with Sections 617.1002 and 617.1007 of the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act and pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by its Board of Directors on March 16, 2021, Wakulla Senior Citizens Council, Inc., hereby adopts these Restated Articles of Incorporation. The corporation's Board of Directors by an affirmative vote of the majority of the members thereof approved this restatement in the manner set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Florida law. These Restated Articles of Incorporation supersede the original Articles of Incorporation and all amendments thereto. There are no members entitled to vote on the adoption of these Restated Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I - Name

The name of this corporation is: Wakulla Senior Citizens Council, Inc.

ARTICLE II - Initial Principal Office

The street and mailing address of the initial principal office of the corporation is:

33 Michael Drive, Crawfordville, Florida 32327

ARTICLE III - Purpose

This Corporation is organized as a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), specially including the following:

1. To provide coordinated community service programs designed primarily for the social well-being and functioning of senior citizens (over the age of sixty), without regard to race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, retaliation, parental status, military service, or other non-merit factor;
2. To provide, on a limited basis based on the availability of resources, community service programs to disabled adults (ages 18-59), to supplement services such individuals receive from other support service organizations;

3. To invest in, receive, hold, use and dispose of all property, real or personal, that may be necessary or desirable to carry into effect the aforementioned purposes; and
4. All other legal activities permitted to a nonprofit corporation, as limited by Section 501(c)(3).

The Corporation shall transact any and all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act and distribute the whole or any part of the income therefrom and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, literary or educational purposes, either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto, as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

No part of the earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation, or to any other person (except that the Corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or on behalf of the Corporation and make other payments and distributions in furtherance of one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any other person shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. The Corporation shall pay no dividends.

No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The Corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

The Corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

The Corporation shall not make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

The Corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization's contribution deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and said Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the assets of the Corporation shall be disposed exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, literary or educational purposes, as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court having proper jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE IV - Manner of Election

The Directors shall be elected as provide for in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE V – Term of Existence

The effective date upon which the Corporation came into existence was June 9, 1971, the effective date of these Restated Articles of Incorporation shall be the date of filing, and shall exist perpetually thereafter unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE VI - Powers

This Corporation shall have all powers conferred upon nonstock, not-for-profit Corporations organized under Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes and any successor provisions thereto now enacted or hereafter amended but shall exercise such powers only in fulfillment of its above-stated purposes.

ARTICLE VII - Bylaws

The Bylaws of the corporation may be adopted by the Board of Directors and altered, amended or repealed, and new and other Bylaws may be made and adopted, in accordance with such Bylaws.

ARTICLE VIII - Amendments

Amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be made and adopted in accordance with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IX - Registered Agent and Registered Office
