RE: 721880

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

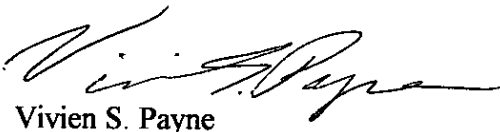

118384

As per phone instruction from your office, I am writing as to the reason the enclosed form is being filed late.

My mother died on Friday, March 29, 2002. This necessitated my leaving the office early that day and being gone for the following two weeks. The form was scheduled to be dealt with the first week in April, needless to say this did not happen. On my return to work a good deal of mail, etc., had been piled on my desk. It was only in working my way through to the bottom of the pile that I discovered this week that I had not had a check cut and the form in the mail on time.

If a late fee is to be assessed, I will pay for it out of my funds. This error was totally due to my personal circumstances of the past two months.

Thank you for your consideration.

Vivien S. Payne
