Dear Friends:

I am writing to request reinstatement of our Not-For-Profit Corporation. We received no communication last year indicating that our application had been rejected, nor did we receive a second notice. We received no communication prior to receiving our Certificate of Administrative Dissolution. When we received the notice of Dissolution, we called and then wrote a letter asking for reinstatement. Although we received no communication confirming reinstatement, we assumed that since we had written the letter reinstatement had been granted. When we did not receive a form in the mail this year, I called to learn that although our check for the application fee for last year had been received and cashed, our Not-For-Profit Corporation remained dissolved.

Please accept the enclosed form for Corporation Reinstatement, along with our check - #13253 for $61.25 as payment for the current year, 2003.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. William T. Slager, Pres.
North Dade Community Church
