Article VIII

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation

The articles of incorporation may be amended from time to time at any regularly scheduled or special meeting of the membership or by a mail referendum, as the Board of Directors in its discretion may prescribe Board of Directors.

All amendments to the Articles of Incorporation must receive a favorable majority of the votes cast in order to be adopted.

Proposed amendments shall be brought on for a vote before the membership.

Proposals for changes to the Articles of Incorporation may be made by any member of the Board of Directors. An amendment to the Articles of Incorporation shall require a favorable vote by a majority of the Board of Directors present and voting at any regularly scheduled or special meeting of the Board of Directors.

Proposed amendments shall be brought on for a vote before the membership only after receiving a favorable recommendation of two thirds (2/3rds) of the membership of the Board of Directors or upon the written request of fifty percent (50%) of the membership.

Article IX

By-Laws

The By-Laws of the Corporation shall be adopted by the Board.

Amendments to the By-Laws may be made by the Board of Directors at any regularly scheduled or regularly called special meeting. Amendments to the By-Laws may also be made by the members of the corporation at any regularly scheduled meeting of the membership.

Proposals for changes to the By-Laws may be made by any member of the Board of Directors or by any member of the corporation.

An amendment to the By-Laws shall require a favorable vote by a majority of the Board of Directors present and voting at any regularly scheduled or special meeting, or a favorable vote of the members of the corporation present and voting at any regularly scheduled meeting of the membership of the Board of Directors.
