ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS, INC.
(A Corporation Not For Profit)

Pursuant to Florida Statute Chapter 617.017 (3) relating to amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Florida Statute Chapter 617.0201 relating to restated Articles of Incorporation, the Articles of Incorporation of Campus Communications, Inc., are hereby amended in their entirety and restated in their entirety in these amended and restated Articles of Incorporation, and all previous Articles of Incorporation and amendments thereto shall be deemed amended and restated by these Articles.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization is Campus Communications, Inc.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

Section 1. The business and purpose of this corporation shall be to carry on and engage in the dissemination and publication of news and information by print, radio, television, electronics, or otherwise, and any other business not prohibited by law.

Section 2. To publish daily, or otherwise, a newspaper containing news of the students, faculty, and staff of the University of Florida. This newspaper shall be called The Independent Florida Alligator and shall be identified in its flag or masthead as being published independently of the administration and of management of the University of Florida; specifically the phraseology to be used in the flag after the name of the newspaper is the following: "Published by Campus Communications, Inc., Gainesville, Florida, not officially associated with the University of Florida."

Section 3. This corporation shall have and exercise all rights and powers conferred upon corporations, not for profit, under the laws of the State of Florida, provided, however, that this corporation is not empowered to engage in any activity that in itself is not in the furtherance of its purposes as set forth in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

ARTICLE V – DIRECTORS

Section 1. Except as otherwise provided in these Articles, the affairs and business of this corporation shall be conducted and managed by the Board of Directors of the corporation.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall comprise not less than seven (7) nor more than nine (9) full voting members.

Section 3. Not less than a majority of full voting members of the Board of Directors shall be “students” as defined by the Bylaws.

Section 4. Director qualification and selection shall be governed by the Bylaws.

Section 5. (a) The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expense (including attorneys’ fees), judgements, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, including any appeal thereof, if he acted in good faith or in a manner he reasonably believes in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. However, with respect to any action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgement in its favor, no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, on application, that despite the adjudication of liability, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity in view of the circumstances of the case. Any indemnification hereunder shall be made only on a determination by a majority of disinterested directors that the indemnification is proper in the particular circumstances because the party to be indemnified has met the applicable standard of conduct. The termination of any action suit or proceeding by judgement, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the party did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. Indemnification hereunder may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of any action, suit or proceeding, on a preliminary determination that the director, officer, employee, or agent met the applicable standard of conduct and on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount, unless it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this section.

(b) The Corporation shall also indemnify any director, officer, employee, or agent who has been successful on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, against all expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonable incurred by him in connection therewith without the necessity of an independent determination that such director, officer, employee, or agent met any appropriate standard of conduct.

(c) The indemnification provided for herein shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person.

(d) In addition to the indemnification provided herein, the Corporation shall have the power to make any other or further indemnification, except an indemnification against gross negligence or willful misconduct, under any resolution or agreement duly adopted by a majority of disinterested directors.
