Re: Reinstatement COR NON PROFIT/ Corporations Sky Lake South Homeowner's Association.

Dear: Y Fisher

Per your discussion on October 26, 1999 with our attorney and the association President Susan Bates. We apologize for any delay in the filing of our Corporation papers. We never received the papers from your office but you discovered that our address of 4030 Dijon was the address that we had paid to have changed so we are confused about how this could possible have happened.

I am sending the full amount listed. We want to be reinstated, then if you could, see if this error can be corrected and the reinstatement late fee is reimbursed to us. We are not a wealthy organization and every dollar means a great deal to us.

We especially feel that we would have filed on time had we received the forms instead of them being sent to the old manager's address although we had paid for the change.

Please let thank you for the prompt attention you gave to our problem. I hope that you can investigate further and realize that we should not be penalized for not filing.

Sincerely,

Lucille P. Martinez
