Section 1. The Corporation hereby indemnifies its Member, any Trustee or Officer made a party, or threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding:

- (a) Whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action, suit, or proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, brought to impose a liability or penalty on such person for an act alleged to have been committed by such person in his capacity as trustee, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, which he served at the request of the Corporation, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred as a result of such action, suit or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith and in the reasonable belief that such action was in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, in criminal actions or proceedings, without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. The termination of any such action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not in itself create a presumption that any such trustee or officer did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation or that he had reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful.

(b) By or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of such persons being or having been a Member, Trustee or Officer of the Corporation, or by reason of such persons serving or having served at the request of the Corporation as a member, trustee, officer, employee or agent of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, or in connection with an appeal therein, if such person acted in good faith and in the reasonable belief that such action was in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation. Such person shall not be entitled to indemnification in relation to matters as to which such person has been adjudged to have been guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation.

Section 2. Any indemnification under paragraph 1 above shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that amounts for which a Member, Trustee or Officer seeks indemnification were properly incurred and that such Member, Trustee, or Officer acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding. In the event that all of the Board of Trustees are parties to such action, suit or proceeding, such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

Section 3. The Corporation shall be entitled to assume the defense of any person seeking indemnification pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1(a) above upon a preliminary determination by the Board of Trustees that such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraph 1(a) above, and upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay all amounts expended by the Corporation in such defense, unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article. If the Corporation elects to assume the defense, such defense shall be conducted by counsel chosen by it and not object to in writing for valid reasons by such person. In the event the Corporation elects to assume the defense of any such person and retain such counsel, such person shall bear the fees and expenses of any additional counsel retained by him, unless there are conflicting interests as between the Corporation and such person, or conflicting interests between or among such person and other parties represented in the same action, suit or proceeding by such counsel retained by the Corporation, that are, for valid reasons, objected to in writing by such person, in which case the reasonable expenses of such additional representation shall be within the scope of the indemnification intended if such person is ultimately determined to be entitled thereto as authorized in this Article.

Section 4. The foregoing rights of indemnification shall not be deemed to limit in any way the powers of the Corporation to indemnify under applicable law.

ARTICLE XII. BYLAWS

The power to adopt, amend or repeal Bylaws for the Corporation shall be vested only in the Limited Member, and shall be exercisable only as specifically provided for in the Bylaws of this Corporation.

ARTICLE XIV. DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution or liquidation of the Corporation, whether such be de jure or de facto, in whole or in part, the Corporation's Board of Trustees shall adopt a resolution recommending a plan of distribution and directing its submission to a vote by the corporate members of IHS, specifically being Good Samaritan Health Systems, Inc., a Florida not-for-profit corporation ("GS") and Catholic Health East, a Pennsylvania not-for-profit corporation ("CHE"). Both GS and CHE shall be authorized and entitled to vote on the plan of distribution on behalf of IHS, and each shall determine the distribution of fifty percent (50%) of all assets of the Corporation not disposed of in discharging the Corporation's liabilities or otherwise distributed in accordance with applicable legal requirements. Such assets of the Corporation shall be distributed by GS and CHE, respectively, only to such not-for-profit corporations as are then exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) thereof. In the event the distributee designated by either GS or CHE is not an exempt organization at the time of distribution, the fifty percent (50%) of the assets of the Corporation in question will be distributed to another not-for-profit corporation, as designated by either GS or CHE, as the case may be, which corporation shall then be exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code, as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) thereof.

The foregoing Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation were adopted by the Limited Member in accordance with the Bylaws of the Corporation on February 27, 1998, and the number of votes cast for the amendment was sufficient for approval.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation on behalf of the Corporation, this 30th day of December, 1998.

President
