AMENDED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
CENTRAL FLORIDA FAMILY HEALTH CENTER, INC

The undersigned directors of Central Florida Family Health Center, Inc., each being natural persons of the age of twenty-one years or more and citizens of the United States pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, adopt the following Amended Articles of Incorporation of such Corporation:

ARTICLE I

NAME OF CORPORATION

The name of the Corporation shall be:

CENTRAL FLORIDA FAMILY HEALTH CENTER, INC.

ARTICLE II

DURATION

The period of the duration of this Corporation shall be perpetual, unless dissolved according to law. The effective date shall be the date of the initial filing with the Florida Secretary of State.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES, POWERS & LIMITATIONS

1. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, educational, and scientific purposes, shall engage in all activities properly related to the foregoing, and shall be operated in accordance with the provisions of §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as the same may be amended from time to time, and any subsequent federal tax law (the "Code"). The Corporation shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any activity that would prevent it from qualifying, and continuing to qualify, under §501(c)(3) of the Code or that would be prohibited by the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act (the "Act"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Corporation shall have such powers as are necessary or proper to accomplish such purposes.
2. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any individual, member, director, officer, or private person, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, based on the nature of the Corporation, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.
3. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

4. The Corporation is empowered to accept donations from Corporations, individuals, grants from non-profit organizations worldwide, city and county government donations, state donations, U.S. government and foreign government donations or grants.
5. Subject to the purposes described in paragraph 1. of this Article III, the Corporation is organized primarily for the purpose of providing primary care health services as a community health center, with an emphasis on medically underserved communities, and to manage, operate, maintain, support and otherwise advance charitable, educational and benevolent activities in the field of behavioral and physical health care, health and behavioral health education and training, scientific research, health facilities, health management and other related fields in order to advance the health and well-being of medically underserved consumers, families, and communities. The Corporation shall be able to provide the aforementioned services in Central Florida including, but not limited to, Orange County, Seminole County and such other counties in Florida as may be approved by the Board of Directors.
6. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a Corporation exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), (b) by a Corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2), or (c) by a non-profit Corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERS

The membership shall consist of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and such other Directors may be elected to the Board of Directors in accordance with the By-Laws of the Corporation.

ARTICLE V

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors. The Directors shall have the sole voting power to manage the affairs of this Corporation. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of a range of nine (9) and no more than twenty-five (25) members. The composition of the Board members shall be as follows: over half must be residents of the Corporation's service area and reasonably represent the demographics of the areas served, as well as being users of the Center. Board members that are users of the Center shall be referred to as "consumer members."
2. No more than one-half (½) of the remaining non-consumer members of the Board may derive more than ten (10) percent of their income from the health care industry.
3. The remaining non-consumer Board members shall be selected for their expertise in various areas and shall be representative of the areas served by the Corporation.
4. No member of the Board shall be an employee of the Center, or spouse or child, parent, brother or sister by blood, marriage, or adoption of any employee of the Center.
5. Directors shall be elected and hold office in accordance with the By-Laws.
6. The names and addresses of the persons who serve as the Directors of the Corporation as of the effective date of these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation are:

ARTICLE VI

DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS UPON DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, scientific or educational purposes in such manner and to such qualified organization or organizations as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed in accordance with the direction of any court having jurisdiction in the county in which the principle office of the Corporation is then located exclusively for the aforesaid purposes of the Corporation to such qualified organization or organizations as said court shall determine. For purposes of this Article, an organization is "a qualified organization" only if, at the time of receiving such assets, it is operated exclusively for the purposes described in Section 107(c)(1) or 170(c)(2)(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and is described in Section 509(a)(1)(2)(3) of said code. Any reference in these Articles of a section of the Code shall be interpreted to include a reference to the corresponding provisions of any applicable future United States Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VII

MEETINGS

1. The annual meeting for the election of members of the Board of Directors shall be held as provided in the By-Laws.
2. The Corporation may provide in its By-Laws for the holding of additional regular meetings and any special meetings and shall provide notice of all such meetings in accordance with the By-Laws.

ARTICLE VIII

BY-LAWS

1. The Board of Directors of this Corporation may provide such By-Laws for the conduct of its business and the carrying out of its purpose as they may deem necessary from time to time.
2. Upon proper notice, the By-Laws may be amended, altered, or rescinded by a majority vote of those Directors present at a regular meeting or any special meeting called for that purpose at which a quorum of Directors is present.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS

These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at a special meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present, called for that purpose, by a majority vote.

ARTICLE X

REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

The principal office of this Corporation shall be at 4930 E. Lake Mary Boulevard, Sanford, FL 32771, and the name of its registered agent shall be Janelle Dunn.

ARTICLE XI

OFFICERS

1. The officers of the Corporation shall be the Chair, Immediate Past Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as may be provided in the By-Laws and will be elected at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors or as provided in the By-Laws.
2. The officers of the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall not receive compensation unless allowed by the By-laws which may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to any pending or threatened action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any appeal thereof, and whether or not by or in the right of the Corporation (collectively, a "Proceeding") by reason of the fact that such person was or is a Director, Officer, employee, member of any community advisory committees that may be convened from time-to-time, or agent of the Corporation, or was or is serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise (including service with respect to employee benefit plans), against any liability, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs), fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such Proceeding, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in; or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Right Not Exclusive. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to that which such indemnified person may be entitled.

Nature and Extent of Rights. The provisions of this Article XII shall be deemed to be a contract right while this Article VIII is in effect and each such person shall be deemed to be so serving in reliance on the provisions of this Article VIII. Any amendment or repeal of this Article VIII or adoption of any bylaw or provision in the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation which has the effect of increasing the liability of any such person shall operate prospectively only and shall not affect any action taken, or any failure to act, prior to the amendment or repeal of this Article VIII, or adoption of such bylaw or provision. The right of indemnification provided herein shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, or agent, or to serve in any other capacity on behalf of the Corporation described above and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors, and administrators.

Insurance. The Corporation shall purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any person eligible to be indemnified hereunder against any liability or expense asserted or incurred by such person in connection with any Action, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability or expense by law or under the provisions of this Article XII.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Directors have executed these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation on this 1st day of November, 2022.
