The powers of the Association will include and be governed by the following provisions:

3.1. The Association will have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit that are not in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

3.2. The Association will have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act, except as limited by these Articles and the Declaration of Condominium for the Condominium to be operated by the Association; and it will have all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate said condominium pursuant to its Declaration of Condominium, as it may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, the following:

At such time as the condominium unit owners, other than the Developer, own fifteen percent (15%) of the condominium units that will be operated ultimately by the condominium association, the said unit owners shall be entitled to elect not less than one-third (1/3) of the directors of the Association. The condominium unit owners, other than Developer, shall have the right to elect not less than a majority of the directors of the Association three (3) years after the Developer has closed the sales of fifty percent (50%) of the condominium units that will be operated ultimately by the Association, or three (3) months after the Developer has closed the sales of ninety percent (90%) of the condominium units that will be operated ultimately by the Association, or at such time as all of the condominium units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been completed and some of them have been sold, should the Developer discontinue offering unsold condominium units in the ordinary course of business, whichever shall first occur. The Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) director as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business any condominium unit in the condominium to be operated by the Association. The Developer may, at Developer's sole discretion, elect to allow the condominium unit owners, other than the Developer, to elect a majority of the Board of Directors before the occurrence of the aforementioned events, and relinquish control of the Association at that time.

Within sixty (60) days after condominium unit owners, other than the Developer, are entitled, as set forth above, to elect a director or directors of the Association, or at such earlier date should the Developer elect to relinquish control of the Association at some earlier date, the Association shall call and give not less than thirty (30) days or more than forty (40) days notice of a meeting of the condominium unit owners for the purpose of such an election.

k. To employ personnel to perform the services required for the proper management and operation of the condominiums.

l. To own and hold fee simple title to lands, within reasonable proximity to the condominiums properties upon which recreational facilities, entranceways, walkways, parking areas, and like facilities are or may be constructed for the benefit of condominium unit owners, and to manage, control and maintain the same; provided, however, that such facilities shall and must be for the use and enjoyment of all apartment owners in any of the condominium apartment buildings to be established upon the real estate previously described herein. The Association shall assess each separate condominium apartment building when completely constructed for its prorata share of the cost and expense of operation and maintenance of said facilities based upon the number of condominium apartments in each condominium apartment building, as that number bears to the total number of apartments in all constructed condominium apartment buildings upon said land.

3.3 All funds, except such portions thereof as are expended for the common expenses of the condominiums, and the titles of all properties will be held in trust for the members of the Association, in accordance with their respective interests under the separate Declarations of Condominium, and in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association.

3.4 The powers of the Association will be subject to and will be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the separate Declarations of Condominium and the Bylaws of the Association.

ARTICLE IV

Members

4.1 The members of the Association will consist of all of the record owners of condominium units in the condominiums, said condominium units being apartments of various types, and after termination of the condominiums shall consist of those who are members at the time of such termination and their successors and assigns.

4.2 After receiving approval of the Association, change of membership will be established by recording in the public records of Indian River County, Florida, a deed or other instrument establishing a record title to a condominium unit and by the delivery to the Association of a copy of such instrument. The owner designated by such instrument thus becomes a member of the Association and the membership of the prior owner is terminated.

4.3 The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his condominium unit.

4.4 The owner of each condominium unit will be entitled to at least one vote as a member of the Association. The exact number of votes to be cast by owners and the manner of exercising voting rights will be determined by the Bylaws of the Association.

2. The foregoing amendments were unanimously adopted by all members of the Association at a special members' meeting duly held and called on the 14th day of January, 1980.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned President and Secretary of this corporation have executed these Articles of Amendment, this 29th day of January, 1980.
