The Golden Age Club of Mulberry Fl Inc. has been a non-profit corporation since 2-07-1978. On 2-10-03 we sent a check for 61.25 for our annual fee & report. I understand from the person I talked to that a notice was mailed stating we needed 3 directors listed. We never received it, as we didn't receive the notice that we are inactive. The address forms is the Mulberry Civic Center & evidently whoever went through the mail threw it away.

And now I understand why we didn't receive a notice in '04 to pay our 61.25.

We are a club of 60 members. The charge $5 per year dues, because most of us are from 70 to 90 years old, are widows or widowers (some couples) & can't afford more.

So we can't afford $298 to be reinstated. We must be listed with the state so the city will keep us on their insurance rolls in case of accident.

Could you find it in your heart to reinstate us, & we can afford $122 as the lady there said, if we have a good reason. We will add to the address attn: me or someone else so we will get our mail. And we will correct & add what we need. Thank you.
