To whom it may Concern:

I took over as treasurer of the Pinellas Park Youth Soccer Association in April of 2002. In my taking over I found out that several of our bills were going unpaid. On of which was our Post Office Box. Unfortunately I didn't realize this until the first of May. After not receiving bank statements for a month I started to investigate into the situation. I found the the P.O.Box had been closed for several months. All of our mail was being returned. I had the P.O.Box reopened and I am still trying to get the rest of our situations straightened out. I m submitting this letter in hopes trying to correct one more of a long list of our boards past errors. I understand that there are rules in place for many reasons. I am not looking to pass blame or even avoid dealing with the consequences, but I am looking to get our soccer association back to a respected organization.

Repectfully Submitted,

Chip Bruce
