Dear Mrs. Mynard,

We have followed your instructions and have amended the Articles previously sent to you. The name of the corporation has been changed to reflect the correct form, and we have had the President and the Secretary sign the document.

I'm not quite sure why you've mentioned something about the registered agent as the articles enclosed herein only reflect the initial registered agent and not the current one. The registered agent is still Mr. Park. There is no need for a filing fee therefore.

Thank you so much for your service.
