Pursuant to the provisions of Florida Statutes sections 617.1006, the undersigned Florida nonprofit corporation adopts the following Articles of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation.

FIRST: Amendments adopted:

Article III is hereby amended as follows:

The corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), including, but not limited to, for such purposes:

(a) The establishing and maintaining of religious worship, the evangelizing of the unsaved by the proclaiming of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, the educating of the believers in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Holy Scripture, the providing of Christian fellowship for those of like precious faith where the Holy Spirit may be honored according to our distinctive testimony, the maintaining of missionary activities in the United States and any foreign country, and any other lawful purpose or purposes not for pecuniary profit and not specifically prohibited to corporations under other laws of the state of Florida.

(b) The perpetuating, promulgating, and supporting of the doctrines of the General Council of the Assemblies of God, and it, and all its property, both real and personal, shall be subject to the laws, usage and ministerial appointments of the General Council of the Assemblies of God, Springfield, Missouri, and the Peninsular Florida District Council, Lakeland, Florida, as now are or shall be from time to time established, made, and declared by lawful authority of the said councils.

(c) The corporation shall have the power to acquire and hold title in fee simple, in trust, or otherwise, to both real and personal property, and to improve, encumber, sell, convey, and dispose of all such property in conformity with the Bylaws of said corporation, and each and every power and right granted to Corporations Not for Profit under the laws of the State of Florida.

Article IV is hereby amended as follows:

The qualifications, rights, privileges, duties, and classifications, of members of the corporation shall be stated in the Bylaws of the corporation.

Article VII is hereby amended as follows:

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. The method of election of directors shall be stated in the Bylaws of the corporation. The corporation shall have a minimum of three (3) directors.

Article XI is hereby added as follows:

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the tax-exempt purposes of the corporation set forth in Article 3.

Article XII is hereby added as follows:

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Article XIII is hereby added as follows:

The corporate powers of this corporation are as provided in section 617.0302, Florida Statutes, except that the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

SECOND: The date of adoption of the Amendment was September 12, 2001.

THIRD: The amendment was adopted by the members and the number of votes cast for the amendment was sufficient for approval.

In Witness Whereof, the undersigned, being the officers of the corporation authorized to execute these Amended Articles of Incorporation which have been adopted by the members of the corporation, do so this twelfth day of September, 2001.
