ARTICLE 4. Not For Profit. The Corporation is a not-for-profit corporation under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes. The corporation is not formed for pecuniary profit. No part of the income or assets of the corporation is distributable to or for the benefit of its directors or officers, except to the extent permissible under these articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3) (referred to below as "Code"). If the Corporation ever has voting members in addition to the non-voting members currently allowed, no member, regardless of voting or non-voting status, shall have any vested right, interest or privilege in or to the assets, income or property of the Corporation and no part of the income or assets of the Corporation shall be distributable to or for the benefit of its members, except to the extent permissible under these Articles, under law and under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3). The nonprofit Corporation shall not issue shares of stock.

ARTICLE 5. Duration. The duration (term) of the nonprofit Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE 6. Purposes. The corporation is organized, and shall be operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including but not limited to: enhancement of education; further promoting and enhancing the welfare of children; benefiting the public; making charitable bequests and grants to other 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3) organizations as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code. No part of its activities will be carrying out propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Corporation will not participate or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE 7. Powers. Solely for the above purposes, the nonprofit Corporation shall have the following powers:

A. Arrange, co-sponsor, promote and make donations and grants to other 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3) organizations as defined by the Code for the benefit of children, educational institutions, and the general public; additionally, to local governments/municipalities as long as the gifts, donations, and/or Grants are for the public's benefit and purposes within the United States.

B. To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida on nonprofit corporations, including but not limited to those set forth in Florida Statutes Chapter 617 and the following powers: to acquire by bequest, devise, gift, grant, donation, contribution, purchase, lease or otherwise any property of any sort or nature without limitation as to its amount or value, and to hold, invest, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate or otherwise dispose of the property and the income, principal and proceeds of the property.

C. To engage in and transact any other lawful activity, solely in furtherance of the above purposes, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act, and any successor or amendment to the Florida Not For Profit Corporation Act.

D. To do any other things as are incidental to the powers of the Corporation or necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the purposes of the nonprofit Corporation.

ARTICLE 8. Limitation. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of or be distributable to its members (if the corporation ever has any form of voting-member, other than the non-voting members, as covered in Article 3, of these Articles), directors or officers, but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments, distributions, and grants in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 7 (Purposes) of these Articles.

ARTICLE 9. Tax Exempt Status. It is intended that the Corporation shall have and continue to have the status of a Corporation that is exempt from Federal income taxation 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(a) as an organization described in 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3) and which is other than a private foundation as defined in 26 U.S.C.A. § 509. These articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such an extent as would result in the loss of exemption under 26 U.S.C.A. § 501(c)(3). All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding provisions of any similar law subsequently enacted.

Each officer shall be elected by majority vote of the board of directors (and may be removed by majority vote of the board of directors) at such a time and in such a manner as may be prescribed by the Bylaws or Bylaw.

ARTICLE 13. Bylaws. The Bylaws of the nonprofit Corporation are to be made and adopted by the board of directors, and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the board of directors.

ARTICLE 14. Amendment. The Corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation or any amendment to them.

ARTICLE 15. Indemnification and Civil Liability Immunity. The Corporation shall indemnify each director and officer, including former directors and officers, to the fullest extent allowed by law, including but not limited to Florida Statutes Chapter 617.
