3) Accident and health insurance, meaning (A) insurance against death or personal injury by accident or by any specified kind or kinds of accident and insurance against sickness, ailment or bodily injury, including insurance providing disability benefits pursuant to article nine of the workers' compensation law, except as specified in item (B) hereof; and (B) non-cancellable disability insurance, meaning insurance against disability resulting from sickness, ailment or bodily injury (but excluding insurance solely against accidental injury) under any contract which does not give the insurer the option to cancel or otherwise terminate the contract at or after one year from its effective date or renewal date.

The Company shall also have the power to effect reinsurance of risks taken by it, and to assume by way of reinsurance similar risks taken by other insurers and reinsurers. In addition, the Company shall have the power to transact any other kind of kinds of business to the extent now or hereafter permitted for life insurance companies under the Insurance Law of the State of New York and necessarily or properly incidental to the kind or kinds of insurance business which the Company is authorized to do.

ARTICLE V

EXERCISE OF CORPORATE POWERS

Section 1. The corporate powers shall be exercised by a Board of Directors and by a President and by one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer and by such other officers and such committees as the Board of Directors may elect or appoint. The Directors shall have all of the qualifications, powers and authority and shall be subject to all of the limitations as set forth in the Insurance Law of the State of New York.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall have the power to make, alter, amend or repeal the bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws"), except in those cases where stockholder action is required by law.

ARTICLE VI

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors shall be thirteen,

ARTICLE VII

PROVISIONS CONCERNING DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 1. Each director shall be elected by shareholders at the annual meeting which is to be held on the first Wednesday of May. If such date shall be a legal holiday in the state of New York, the annual meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day not such a legal holiday at the Company's principal office. Each Director shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2. The elected officers of the Company shall be a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and may also include a chairman of the board, and such other officers as the board of directors may determine. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person except the offices of president and secretary.

Section 3. Whenever any vacancy or vacancies shall occur in the Board of Directors by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors, at a meeting called for that purpose, or at any regular meeting, shall elect a Director or Directors to fill the vacancy or vacancies thus occasioned, and each Director so elected shall serve until his successor is elected and is qualified. If, because of any vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors, the number of Directors shall be less than thirteen, the Company shall not for that reason be dissolved, but every Director shall continue to hold office and discharge his duties until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 4. Vacancies in any office may be filled for the remainder of the term in which the same shall occur by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. At all times, not less than two Directors shall be residents of New York and no Director shall be less than eighteen years of age. A majority of the directors must, during their entire terms of service, be citizens and residents of the United States. Not less than one-third of the Board of Directors, but not less than four, shall be persons who are not officers or employees of the Company or any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the Company and who are not beneficial owners of a controlling interest in the voting stock of the Company or any such entity. Directors need not be stockholders.
