OF

(a Florida corporation)
INTO
THE DELTONA CORPORATION
(a Delaware corporation)

1. Names of Merging Corporations

Canyon Creek, Inc., a Florida corporation ("Canyon Creek"), shall be merged with and into The Deltona Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("Deltona").

2. Terms and Conditions of the Proposed Merger

2.1 The Merger

The Merger shall occur at the Effective Date and Time, as defined below, at which time the separate existence of Canyon Creek shall cease, Deltona, which owns 100% of the shares of Canyon Creek, shall be the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation"). Deltona's corporate existence, with all its purposes, powers, bylaws and objects, shall continue unaffected and unimpaired by the Merger. (Canyon Creek and Deltona are hereinafter sometimes collectively referred to as the "Constituent Corporations").

2.2 The Surviving Corporation

The Surviving Corporation shall be The Deltona Corporation. As of the Effective Date and Time of the Merger, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in the applicable provisions of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA") and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"). The identity, existence, purposes, powers, objects, franchises, privileges, rights and immunities of every kind of Deltona shall continue unaffected and unimpaired by the Merger; and the corporate franchises, existence and rights of every kind of Canyon Creek shall be merged with and into Deltona; and Deltona, as the Surviving Corporation, shall be fully vested therewith. The separate existence of Canyon Creek shall cease and, in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchise, of a public as well as of a private nature, and all property, real, personal, intangible and mixed of every kind; and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, all taxes, including those due and owing and those accrued, and all other causes in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to Canyon Creek and Deltona shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to, and vested in, the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed, and all property, rights and privileges, powers and franchises and all and every other interest of every kind shall be thereafter as effectually the property of the Surviving Corporation as they were of Canyon Creek and Deltona; and the title to any and all real estate contracts, or interest therein, whether by deed or otherwise, vested in Canyon Creek and Deltona, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger and all rights, assets and receivables of Canyon Creek and Deltona shall be the property of the Surviving Corporation.

The Surviving Corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of Canyon Creek and Deltona; and any claim existing, or action or proceeding pending by or against Canyon Creek or Deltona may be prosecuted as if the Merger had not taken place, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in their place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of Canyon Creek or Deltona shall be impaired by the Merger; and all debts, liabilities and duties of Canyon Creek and Deltona shall attach to the Surviving Corporation, and may be enforced against such Surviving Corporation to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by such Surviving Corporation.

The Constituent Corporations shall execute, deliver, acknowledge and record any and all documents necessary or appropriate to confirm and perfect the transfer of assets and property to the Surviving Corporation. The intent of Canyon Creek and Deltona is that without enumerating the individual assets and liabilities of Canyon Creek and Deltona that the Surviving Corporation shall be vested with all of the assets and liabilities of Canyon Creek and Deltona to the broadest sense without the necessity of transfer documentation.
