Article III

Business Purposes

The objects and purposes of the Corporation are as follows:

Section 1. Insurance Business. To engage in the kinds of insurance business specified in Class 1, Clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Section 27-1-5-1 of the Code, which provide as follows:

(a) To insure the lives of persons, including insurance against permanent mental or physical disability resulting from accident or disease, or against accidental death combined with a policy for life insurance, and to grant, purchase or dispose of annuities;

(b) To insure against bodily injury or death by accident and against disablement resulting from sickness and every insurance appertaining thereto; including contracts between an insurer and policyholder providing for the indemnification of the policyholder (or the other party) obligated to pay benefits resulting from bodily injury, death by accident, or disablement from sickness in accordance with the provisions of a benefit plan; and

(c) Within the meaning of "Insurance Appertaining to Persons Only," generally described in Class 1 of this section, are to be included, among other things:

(1) Contracts providing for immediate or future life insurance and/or annuity benefits, fundable and/or computable as to cost or payment or both; and

(2) Contracts providing for insurance against bodily injury or sickness, a portion of which may be funded; out of or on the basis of assets in a segregated investment account; the assets being those received by the company from or in relation to contributions, premiums or considerations received by it under such contracts. The establishment of such account shall in no way affect the company's absolute ownership of the investment items to which the account from time to time pertains. A company issuing contracts of the nature described may as to them establish one (1) or more segregated accounts, dependent upon the company's plan of operation. A segregated investment account established as contemplated in this paragraph (c) shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct and which has no specific relation to or dependence upon such account. Any surplus or deficit which may arise in any such segregated investment account by virtue of any guarantee by the company of the value of the assets allocated to the account, their investment or income, or mortality experience shall be adjusted by withdrawals from or additions to such account so that the assets of such account shall always equal the assets required to satisfy all liabilities arising under contract fundable by such account."

Section 2. Acting as Principal, Underwriter or Reinsurer. To act as principals, underwriters, reinsurers, or to act in any other lawful capacity with respect to any and all kinds of insurance specified in Class 1, Clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Section 27-1-5-1 of the Code.

Section 3. Other Powers, Rights and Privileges. The Corporation is authorized to exercise and enjoy all of the powers, rights and privileges granted to, or confirmed upon corporations of a similar character by the Code and the general laws of the State of Indiana, and by common law, as now or hereafter in force, and enumeration of the foregoing powers is not deemed to exclude any powers, rights or privileges so granted or confirmed.

The Corporation is authorized to do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers herein set forth, either alone or associated with others, and incidental or pertaining to, or growing out of, or connected with, its business or powers, provided the same be not inconsistent with the Code or the general laws of the State of Indiana, as now or hereafter in force, or of any other state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, where such laws may be applicable.

The Corporation is authorized to carry out the purposes hereinbefore set forth in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, to the extent that such purposes are not forbidden by the law of any such state, territory, district or possession of the United States or by any such foreign country.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as authorizing, permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the Corporation to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which the Corporation may not, under the Code, lawfully carry on, exercise, or do.

The foregoing objects and purposes shall, when otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other Article of these Articles of Incorporation for Redomestication or of any amendment thereto or hereto, and each will be regarded as independent, and construed as powers as well as objects and purposes.

Article IV

Period of Duration

The duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

Article V
