Dear Lee:

Returned herewith per our conversation is the Department's letter of June 18, 2001 which was returned to me.

Your letter indicates that one check in the amount of $176.86 was being returned. In actuality, you returned 2 checks to me, the first one that was referenced above and a separate check in the amount of $88.11.

As you correctly point out, the fee to file the annual report is $176.86. The form also requires "a separate filing fee" be attached in the amount of (according to you) $88.06. Our check in the amount of $88.11 was attached, which you returned with your letter.

I am returning the forms per our conversation. I speculate that the person that sent the documents back did not see the 2nd check as it was directly underneath the first one. No need to refund my $.05 overpayment. Thank you.

Sincerely,

MARQUETTE DEVELOPMENT
