RE: 2001 Uniform Business Report Document # A0000001617 Sapp Family Partnership, LTD

This letter is being sent to you to ask for your consideration to waive the $400 late fee on the above referenced UBR filing, as Carl T. Sapp is 84 years old and has been recently diagnosed with Alzheimer Disease. This was his first year of filing and he was confused with this new obligation.

Based on his current condition, it was advised that Mr. Sapp meet with an estate planning attorney to prepare and execute the appropriate documents for Mr. Sapp to resign as Trustee on his existing Revocable, Irrevocable and Credit Shelter Trusts, appointing a successor Trustee. In addition, he executed a Limited Partnership Statement of Change of Registered Office or Registered Agent, or Both (copies enclosed for your records). This removed him as the Registered Agent and appointed Douglas J. Collier as the new Registered Agent on both the Sapp Family Corp. and the Sapp Family Partnership, as of 8/6/01.

I would appreciate your office taking into consideration these circumstances and granting a waiver of the late filing fee.

Please communicate your decision to my office at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Douglas J. Collier, General Partner
