Re: Navarro Family Limited Partnership ("Navarro Family LP")
Corporate Travel Consultants II LLC ("Corporate Travel Consultants II LLC")
Collins Family Limited Partnership ("Collins Family LP")

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are in receipt of your letters dated May 15, 2002 and May 22, 2002. Regrettably, we just received these letters. It appears that one of the three letters had the wrong address, which according to our local post office caused for the envelope to be misdelivered. It is quite unclear how all three letters were just in one envelope and how it was just delivered to us. It was at the courtesy of our mailman that he delivered the envelope to us since he recognized the name of our office.

It appears that the annual report for Collins Family LP was returned because of an overpayment, when such was not the case. Our check number 11279 in the amount of $576.25 included the filing fee for Collins Family LP of $526.25 plus the filing fee for Corporate Travel Consultants II LLC of $50.00. The annual report for Corporate Travel Consultants II LLC was returned to us because there was no check enclosed, even though our check number 11279 had been included and of which paid the filing fees for Collins Family LP and Corporate Travel Consultants II LLC.

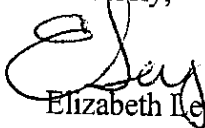

As to Navarro Family LP, your letter indicates that it was returned due to an additional supplemental affidavit required. Please note that this was an error and we have corrected the annual report to reflect the capital contributions as shown on record.

Please provide to us confirmation that the entities are active and current. If there are any problems with these documents or the checks enclosed please contact us immediately as these entities need to be maintained in good standing.
