RE: Annual Reports

Dear Ms. Tadlock:

Please note that the following Florida entities are in default due to a delay in filing their Annual Reports and accompanying fees:

Midland Equity II Limited Partnership
Midland Properties Limited Partnership for Corporate Investors
Midland Properties Limited Partnership I
Midland Properties Limited Partnership II
Midland Properties Limited Partnership III
Midland Properties Limited Partnership IV
Midland Properties Limited Partnership V
Midland Properties Limited Partnership VI
Midland Properties Limited Partnership VII
Midland Properties Limited Partnership VIII
Midland Properties Limited Partnership IX
Midland Properties Limited Partnership X
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XI
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XII
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XIV
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XV
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XVI
Midland Properties Limited Partnership XVII

In an effort to bring the above entities ("Entities") in good standing and reinstatement, Matt Celata, the other paralegal in this office, called your office and spoke with you to discuss not only the procedures of reinstating the Entities, but to explain our situation and the reasons why these Entities fell behind in their annual maintenance. You advised Matt that if the reinstatement forms were accompanied by a letter indicating that the Entities failed to receive notification that reports were due and would subsequently be inactivated for failure to file, your office would waive the reinstatement fee and the above Entities would only be responsible for filing fees for years 2004, 2005, and 2006.

343

As such, I would like to explain the history of how this office became the new guardians of the Entities. MMA Financial, which is a Baltimore-based company, acquired a Florida company, called Midland Equity Corporation and its assets back in 1999. MMA Financial then acquired this Boston office in 2003. During the time period of 2003 and 2004, the Entities were still controlled out of the Florida MMA office. The Entities did not come under the Boston office's purview until mid-2005. In our diligence review of passing of these Entities, we were informed that all Entities were in good standing and we never received notices informing that failure to file any reports would cause inactivation.

We are eager to get the Entities in good standing, and appreciate any help the Florida Secretary of State can permit due to the circumstances in our "pause" of these Entities's maintenance. Please find enclosed the Reinstatement Statements as well as a check in the amount of $27,000, representing the filing Fees for all Entities for the years 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Should you have any questions pertaining to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me at (617) 772-0327 or Matt Celata at (617) 772-9576.

Thank you for all the anticipated assistance you can provide, and we look forward to working with the Florida Secretary of State's Office in the future.

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Coletti,
Senior Paralegal
