Dear Ms. Hodges:

Sorry for the delay on getting the paper work done for you to reinstate Tulco Resources, Ltd. I have attached another application which I hope is correct.

As I mentioned, I really have no recollection of seeing these forms come through over the past few years. Certainly we would have gladly been paying the $52.50 each year to the State to avoid all this additional confusion. I am very sure I don't remember anyone calling to remind us to file these forms so I think somehow we just fell through the cracks.

When I talked with someone in your office on June 10, 1998, they told me that I should attach a check for $297.50 to reinstate Tulco. I trust that this is correct.

Thank you for your help and cooperation in this matter and if there is any additional information I can supply you, please call me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

JUD LAIRD
