To Whom it may Concern:

We received the enclosed letter from you dated July 16, 2002 indicating that we filed our uniform business reports late.

We are disputing this as the first and only notice we received was in June of 2002, which was the notice that requested that we file our uniform business reports and checks by September 25, 2002, which were the directions we followed.

Enclosed again are the checks and business reports you require. We would sincerely appreciate that the late fees in this matter be waived. Should you have any further questions or requirements, feel free to contact me at 561-278-0053, Ext. 2.

Thank you,

Thomas Hinners
