Dear Ms. Watson, or to whom it may concern:

As we discussed in our telephone conversation today, I write to follow up on your letter dated July 26, 1995 (copy enclosed). As requested, the certificate for limited partnership for the above referenced entity has been changed to delete an effective date prior to the date of filing. Additionally, also enclosed is an original executed Certificate of Acceptance as Registered Agent and Registered Office.

Finally, I enclose a check, in the amount of $8.75, for a certificate of status. If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

We have received your document for DBL PROPERTIES OF NORTH FLORIDA, LTD. and your check(s) totaling $576.25. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

You have indicated in block 5b or 8b on the document that the contributions of the limited partners have gone beyond what we currently have on file. A supplemental affidavit must be filed pursuant to chapter 620, Florida Statutes. The filing fee is based on the additional amount of contributions calculated at a rate of $7 per $1000 with a minimum filing fee of $52.50 and a maximum filing fee of $1750.

The fee to file the supplemental affidavit is $56.00 and the fee to file the annual report is $541.25. The total fee due for both filings is $597.25. Please return the supplemental affidavit and the annual report together with the appropriate fee.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

If you have any questions concerning the filing of your document, please call (904) 487-6911.
