Re: DiFabrizio Family Enterprises, Ltd.

Ladies/Gentlemen:

Our client, the above captioned taxpayer, has asked us to correspond and respond to your notice dated August 11, 2003, a copy of which is enclosed for further identification.

Please be advised that the DiFabrizio Family has been a client of our firm for many years and as a result, has totally relied upon our advice and initiative with regard to all of their tax filing obligations.

Apparently, somehow, and through inadvertence, our firm misplaced the original form that was mailed to them during the earlier part of the year and the failure to timely file the report by its original due date went undetected. It was not until they received a second notice from you that they inquired with us with regard to the form and, concurrently provided us with a copy for our review. At that point, we prepared the report and instructed them to file it by the due date indicated therein of September 24, 2003. Obviously, because of the late filing you have assessed a penalty of $400.00.

We have taken the liberty to return the original form as filed with your office and respectfully submit a request for the favorable consideration of the abatement of the penalty as a result of the late filing, inasmuch as it was due to their reliance on our firm and not due to a willful or capricious intent to delay the filing.

If you should require any additional information or evidence to support the favorable consideration for the abatement of the penalty, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

Frank Perez, Jr.
