I previously sent these documents to your office for filing but they were returned by the Secretary of State's Office due to alleged deficiencies in the documents. On today's date, I talked with an official in the Secretary of State's Office and it appears that the documents I have submitted are correct. Please resubmit these documents to the Secretary of State's Office at your earliest convenience. I understand you will be charging me an additional fee for this service.

Sincerely,

Stan Trappe
