Dear Beverly:

As we feared, the State of Florida rejected our request for a reconsideration on the filing fee issue. As indicated to you previously, we generally find that they are quite inflexible which obviously results from the fact that the taxpayer usually cannot afford to fight their position.

We would be happy to contest their interpretation, but I fear that the cost would exceed the amount in issue. Let me know if you would like for us to take any further action in connection with this issue.

It is my understanding that Bob will be filing the gift tax return. Please send me a copy for our files when that is completed.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Annis
